

LifePort, Inc. awarded
Cessna 560 XL
Supplemental Type Certificate

Woodland, WA – LifePort, Inc. has received a FAA Supplemental Type Certificate (STC) for the Cessna 560XL and the Cessna 560XLS. The LifePort Patient Loading Utility System or (PLUS) may be configured to accommodate any/or all of the following components; AeroSled TS adult patient stretcher and patient loading system, along with approvals for the LifePort AeroSled II stretcher and AeroSled TD Cargo/UtilityDeck with oxygen shroud which allows for the transport of infant or neonate transports. Advanced life support components may include two (2) 1000 watt inverters, two (2) suction pumps and two (2) compressed air pumps.

LifePort has been providing custom solutions for aircraft medical interiors for over fourteen years. For more information, contact LifePort sales department by phone at (360) 225-1212, email solutions@lifeport.com, or visit our website at www.lifeport.com.